RE: Tyler Hirsch

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to you today to enthusiastically support the character and work ethic of Tyler Hirsch. Tyler worked in our shop this past summer under my supervision. He was always on time and stepped up to complete every task he was assigned. He has a good work ethic and was a huge asset to our company. He was a good communicator to those he worked alongside and earned their respect in return. Tyler did an excellent job in his position and completed each task with extreme dedication and determination. He was a huge asset to the success of our shop in keeping us on a strict timeline to help ensure we saved time and money on each of our projects in production.

If you have any further questions or need any further information, please let us know.

Thanks,
